

FITNESS FOR WORK POLICY

The Work, Health and Safety Act 2012 makes it a requirement for all employers to provide a safe workplace. The Act also requires employees to ensure that they take reasonable care to protect their own health and safety and that of others whilst in the workplace.

Part of this responsibility is ensuring that employees present fit for work in an appropriate physical, mental and emotional state that enables them to perform their duties in a manner that will not impact on their own or another’s health, safety or work performance.

Bartsch Builders will comply with its obligations to ensure that it provides a safe workplace and ensure employee health by:

1. Providing a safe and health workplace, free from the potential hazards created by inappropriate use or influence of alcohol and/or drugs, and to this end have a zero tolerance stance on the possession, use or influence of alcohol and/or drugs;
2. Educating all under Bartsch Builders control that selling, distributing, manufacturing, possessing or consuming alcohol and/or drugs is strictly prohibited during working hours or while on Bartsch Builders premises or work sites (including Company vehicles);
3. Providing a fair, transparent and equitable approach to deal with issues in relation to the use of alcohol and/or drugs, and provide support and guidance to personnel under Bartsch Builders control in the rehabilitation from substance abuse; through external advisory and counselling services,
4. Ensuring that this procedure and any other related procedures are communicated to all under Bartsch Builders control so that it is clear what is expected from personnel working on Bartsch Builders premises and/ or worksites.

Employee Responsibilities

1. Employees must comply with this policy and any associated procedures.
2. Employees must make themselves available for testing in accordance with any associated testing procedure.
3. Employees must not be impaired by alcohol or other drugs during working hours or when on Bartsch Builders premises or work site, including Company vehicles.
4. Employees are prohibited from selling, distributing, manufacturing, possessing or consuming alcohol or other drugs during working hours or while on Bartsch Builders premises or worksite.
5. Alcohol may be consumed on company premises during officially sanctioned events but only in accordance with strict provisions that will be communicated prior to the event.
6. Employees required to take medically prescribed drugs that might or could affect their work or performance (as defined on the packaging of the medicine, or in the Consumer Medicine Information Sheet for the particular prescription) are required to immediately notify their supervisor/manager so that appropriate duties can be determined prior to attendance at work..
7. Any employee who is concerned about another employee due to possible alcohol or other drug use must report the matter to their supervisor/manager as soon as possible.

Bartsch Builders reserves the right to search its premises or work site for alcohol and/or other drugs, and employees must make themselves available for this purpose.
